Shivers Group Has Breakfast Boost Campaign

Following the Shivers campaign talk by the Governor Friday afternoon at the Herring Hotel, friends of the Governor in Canyon organized for the coming battle in Randall county.

With 350 representatives from every county in the Panhandle present, Governor Shivers laid before the group his plans for an intensive campaign Friday. He asked Yarborough why he received so many Negro votes, if he had made no trade with them; why six CIO organizers left by plane for their homes in Detroit and Washington following the first campaign when they thought they had won the fight for Yarborough; why Yarborough carried practically every county in Texas with a large CIO vote; why the teachers of Texas had thrown their support to Yarborough when Shivers had nothing to do with the failure of the first pay boost bill; how Yarborough hoped to meet all of the increased cost of government that he was promising without a sales tax or an income tax; why all extreme left wingers of the party was lined up behind Yarborough, while the conservatives were voting for Shivers.

The biggest lie ever told was that "Texas stole the tidelands." The Governor outlined how he had pulled the Canadian River bill out of the file and secured the passage so that Texas would own the dam when it was built.

The Governor referred to the Parr forces in Duval county, and how George Parr was fighting him. (The falsehood of Yarborough that Rangers were pulled out of Duval was not told until Sunday; and was promptly denied).

General Ernest O. Thompson, member of the Railroad Commission, declared Shivers was one of the greatest governors Texas had ever had. "I was elected for a fifth term of six years; Yarborough and his followers supported Roosevelt for a fourth, four years term; Shivers is running for a third two year term; it all depends upon who wants to be Governor as to

Absentee Voting Second Primary

Ballots were delivered Saturday for voting in the second primary to be held on Saturday, August 28. The ballots were printed by The Canyon News and absentee voting was scheduled to start on Sunday.

There are only five names printed on the primary ballot.

For Governor, the names of Allan Shivers and Ralph Yarborough are candidates for Governor.

For the Supreme Court Place No. 1, the race is between Few Brewster and Alfred Scott.

The situation arises whereby there is only one candidate's name printed on the ballots as a candidate for the Court of Criminal Appeals. This name is Lloyd W. Davidson. Alan Haley of Wichita Falls stood second in this race, but 100,000 votes under Davidson. Haley withdrew, leaving the field to his opponent. Under the Texas Election law, the state committee had no choice but to leave the one name on the ballots.

Absentee voting will continue until Tuesday, August 24.

Lateral Roads To Receive State Cash

The Commissioners Court has been notified that Randall county will receive $23,104.21 from the lateral road fund which is being divided among the counties of the state.

Under the provisions of the law, excess in this fund is divided annually, and must be divided among the four commissioners' precincts and may be applied to county road work. The sum due Randall county will be too small an amount for farm-to-market roads or other major projects.

The counties must apply for this division before the state may divide the money.

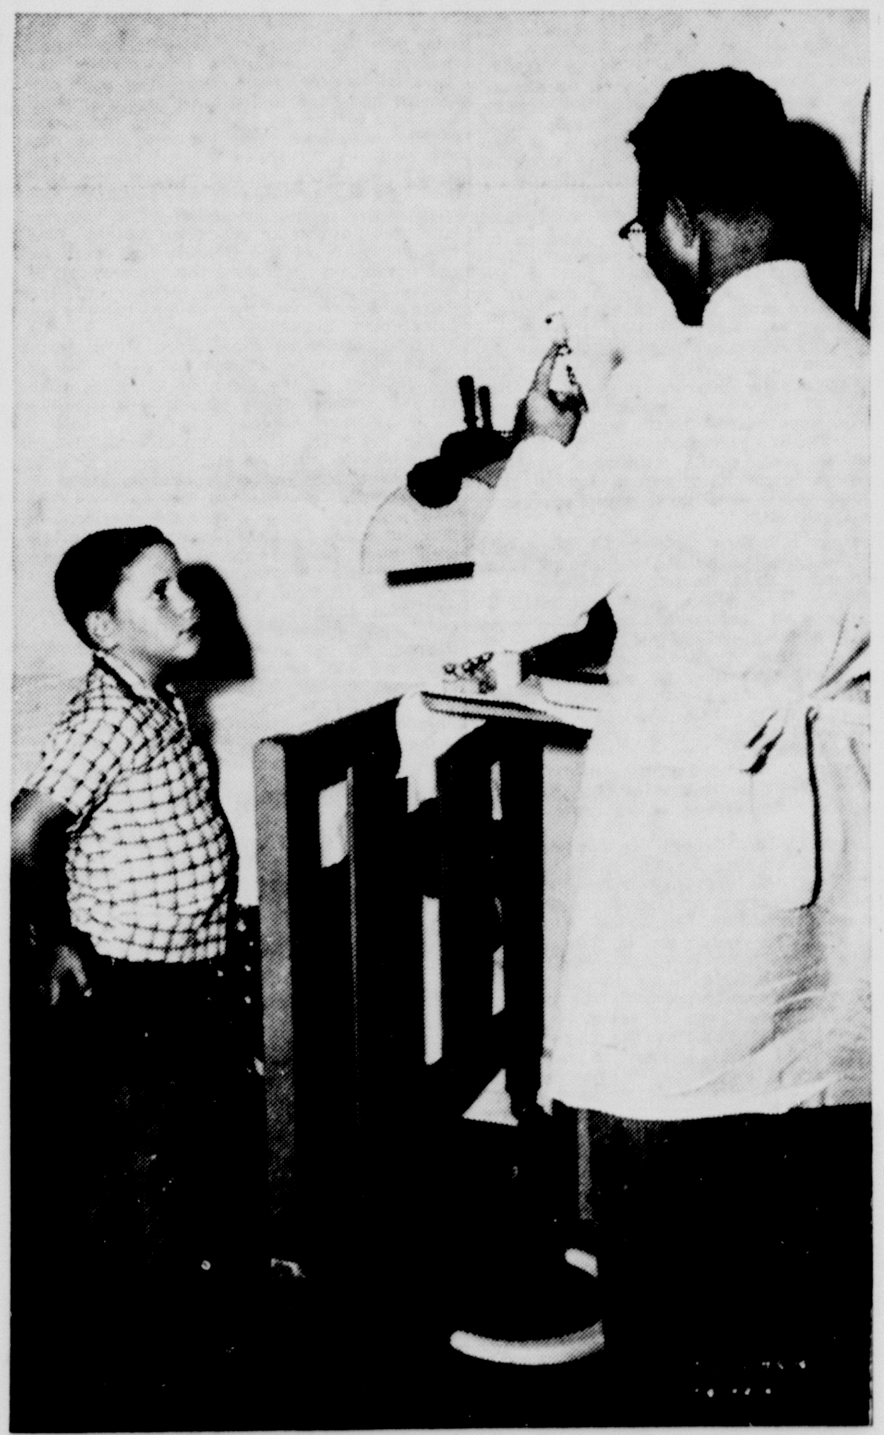
Polio Fund Distributes $16,000 in Co.

Doctors in Canyon donated their time to giving 1500 shots of gamma globulin to the children of Randall county who were aware of the dangers of polio. Three cases and one death have been reported in the county so far.



Sore bottoms was the order of the day in Canyon when the doctors administered shots for polio to 1500 children last week. The fact that this medicine cost the foundation about $11 per shot did not ease the pain of the needles which were used in the shots.

Polio Fund Drive Will Start in Randall Friday

Old-fashioned ice cream rallies with home-made ice cream and musical entertainment from the bandstand will be featured on the courthouse square in Canyon Friday and Saturday evenings.

The rallies are to launch the Randall County emergency fund drive for the March of Dimes. This campaign, a nationwide drive for additional money to fight polio, is seeking 20 million dollars in donations. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is out of money, due to the unexpectedly heavy need for inoculations and treatment this year, drive officials said.

In order to continue the search for polio's cause, to treat its victims, and to give shots which help prevent it, additional money is needed nationally. The drive begins officially Monday, Aug. 16.

Joe Gibson, director for Randall County's share of the emergency fund drive, said he knew people of this county will understand the need for the money, since they have benefited by spending $16,000 of the national foundation's money for free gamma globulin shots to protect their youngsters against the dread disease. With the combined efforts of the Medical and Dental Clinic and Neblett Hospital, more than 1,600 Randall County children received the inoculations which help build up immunity to polio.

Sponsored by the Lions and Rotary clubs of Canyon, the rallies Friday and Saturday will have the cooperation of other civic groups and churches, both those of Canyon and Umbarger. The clubs and churches have agreed to furnish home-made ice cream, which will be served as long as it lasts. If the home-made cream runs out, bought varieties will be served.

Friday's rally will be from 6 to 8 p. m. At 6 p. m. that evening, M. J. Newman, professor of music at West Texas State College and director of its current Music Camp, will present an exhibition of twirling by baton experts attending the summer course at the college. A 5-piece "German Band" also will play during the rally. This band will include Dr. Dudley Moore, Raymond Raillard and M. D. Shepherd. Two other members have not yet been named.

Featured during Saturday's rally will be a 5:15 p. m. appearance of "Pete the Pirate," Amarillo TV star. The rally will be from 5:30 to 6:30 p. m.

Gibson said he hoped everyone in Randall County would come to the rally one afternoon to help make up for the assistance the national foundation has given our county. Already many Canyon citizens have donated, so there is approximately $600 in the county's polio fund now, Gibson said.

George Blackwell is Canyon's city chairman for the polio drive. Don Standley is treasurer, and Dr. R. P. Jarrett is permanent county chairman.

The joint committee from Lions and Rotary clubs, working out plans for the rallies, are Don Standley, Raymond Raillard, Dr. Moore, Emmitt Smith, Rex Reeves, and Truitt McGregor. Jack Haley and Bill R. Lee are assisting Blackwell with publicity.

Stake Off Land For Underpass

The State Highway Department has sent men to Canyon to check up on construction of the underpass on the Santa Fe which has been awaiting action of the railroad for several years.

It is planned to let the contract for widening this underpass at the October meeting of the State Highway Commission.

At the meeting of the Commissioners Court Monday, the County Attorney was authorized to start condemnation proceedings for the small strip of side which is carried on the records as belonging to "G. W. Brooks." Just whom this man is cannot be ascertained. All of the balance of the land is under the ownership of local persons.

Winston Wilbanks, who with his family is on vacation, had their service Sunday morning conducted by two of its outstanding women: Mrs. J. D. Barker and Mrs. Lee Foster. Nearly 7,000 women attended the meeting from all over the world. Mrs. Foster was a delegate from the Amarillo Presbyterial which is comprised of 36 counties in the Panhandle, and very effectively presented the theme of the national meeting—"Christ Is the Way of the World."

Bicycle Parade Offers Exciting Contest Saturday

Young bicyclists are being rounded up to get in on the big bicycle parade Saturday. Chamber of Commerce Manager Roland Black said the bicycle parade would begin forming at 9 o'clock Saturday morning between the West Texas Elementary School building and the museum. It is scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock, move up Fourth Avenue, around the square, and stop at the bandstand.

When the parade stops at the bandstand the judges will pick the three best decorated bicycles for prizes. After the prizes have been given the paraders will be dismissed to form again at 1 p. m. at the north end of Buffalo Stadium.

Upon reassembling there will be bicycle races and a safety contest beginning at 2 o'clock. Prizes will be given the winners in the two contests. There will be the added attraction of safety instruction given by Chief of Police George Roden. Later the bicyclists will be given a safety test and all who pass it will be given a bicycle safety certificate.

Light Showers Fall in Canyon

Two light showers fell in Canyon during the past week.

The first Saturday evening measured a half inch. There was considerable damage from this rain when a hail storm hit south and southeast of Canyon.

There was another light shower Tuesday morning which measured only .05 of an inch.

The rain Saturday covered most of the south part of the county, with greater amounts falling than the rain which was measured in Canyon.

City Water Hits New High

Consumers of city water used 45,281,600 gallons of water during the month of July, according to figures compiled by the City Clerk's office. The billings for water during the month amounted to $8,592.84.

Due to the continued dry, hot weather, the consumption of water was about twice the normal consumption.

West Texas State was the largest consumer of water, due to the necessity of irrigating the trees, shrubs and grass on the campus. However the city was not called upon for irrigation water until June 22. The college used $229.85 in water. The public schools used $125.05; and the railroad used $115.30 in water.

The largest individual bill for city water was $31.25, according to the records.

Two of the city wells are being shut down every night according to Dudley Bayne. In spite of the fact that the consumption of water during July was six million gallons of water above the peak consumption of 1953, the city has had no difficulty in furnishing all of the water necessary to meet the demand.

Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Barnard and two sons joined her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keeling, on a vacation trip to Ruidosa, the Barnards returning home Tuesday.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Governor Allan Shivers Should Control the State Convention

When Governor Shivers took the lead of the Democrats of Texas, he was assured that he would carry with him the control of the Democratic State Convention.

The Yarborough group has not stopped fighting and hopes to control the State Convention when it meets in Mineral Wells next month.

We give you this little suggestion: When Governor Shivers wins in the second primary, he is entitled to hold control of the State Democratic Convention; but on the other hand should Texas be unfortunate enough to elect Ralph Yarborough on August 28, the control of the State Convention will be his responsibility and his obligation.

We make this statement as a matter of justice.

The Democrats hope to win control of Congress in November. It would be unfortunate if the party won a majority in either or both houses of Congress. President Eisenhower should have a majority of his party in control of Congress, the same as the Governor of Texas should hold control of the Democratic party after the second primary.

If the voters of Texas will go to the polls on August 28, we have no fear of the outcome. Governor Shivers will win a large majority, since the Yarborough campaign is falling apart at the seams and the Governor is hard at work holding his group together.

We started to discuss the County Convention in Randall county.

Yarborough carried precinct 6 by two votes; and precinct 9 by 72 votes. The Governor carried the other eight boxes in the county. The Governor won Randall County by 457 votes. While this is not a heavy vote, yet it is a decisive vote. Governor Shivers carried every Commissioners Precinct in the county; and all but two of the voting boxes.

Now then, in light of this victory for Governor Shivers, don't you think that in all fairness he is entitled to the 19 votes of Randall county in the State convention?

It is altogether likely that nothing would have ever come of the convention if South Amarillo citizens had not bragged that they intended coming down to Canyon and take the convention from Governor Shivers.

They were pretty hot under the collar when they were defeated in their efforts to carry out this scheme.

If you want to see Governor Shivers continue in political power in Texas for the coming two years, go to the polls August 28 and vote for him.

Unions of America Conduct Big Business in Nation's Capital

The United States Chamber of Commerce protests that unions are engaged in all kinds of business, and have taken over the big banks and office buildings in the nation's capital.

We ask you why this distress?

Certainly the laboring man, if he is capable and honest, has the same right to engage in business as the business executive. We note that some of the big executives sit on and direct the board of directorates of at least a dozen different corporations.

Perhaps the Chamber has in mind the case of John L. Lewis, who controls the miners and rules with an iron hand. In spite of all the good that Lewis has done for his group and all the benefits which have been accomplished during his long career as labor leader, let it be recalled that the miners won and control several big banks in Washington and own the best business houses, and likewise Lewis has been lavish in aiding other unions on strike as well as throwing money into national campaigns.

Yet we see the very same thing happen among business corporations in the United States.

We were told the experience of a candidate who ran twice for Governor of Texas. In his first race he noted that a certain man had heard three or four of his campaign talks to the voters, and had watched his greetings following the talks. Finally this man asked the candidate if he might ride with him to the next appointment. During the drive the man introduced himself and stated the big corporation in Texas which he represented. He said that his company was interested in this candidate's campaign and if he needed any money. (This was before the day of television and radio).

He was assured by the candidate that he was getting along okay, and would need no cash. This representative offered him a check for $10,000 to go toward his campaign, which was promptly rejected. (The company was likewise giving $10,000 to the other candidates in that race.)

We repeat this story since it happened long ago, and goes to show how easily a leading candidate raises money for his campaign.

Governor Shivers and Ralph Yarborough can get all of the money they need for their campaigns. "Rich" Mr. Shivers and "Poor Man" Mr. Yarborough are just alike in the eyes of the fellows who are willing to put up the cash for their campaigns.

No Depression in Sight For Business in These United States

We have often heard the remark:

"There is nothing the matter with the Panhandle that a three inch rain would not cure."

How true! Yes, how true.

Look over the business chart for a moment and see what is going on in this fair land of ours:

Meat production and consumption are both up; sale of electrical appliances are up; advertising agencies report that more space has been bought by the national firms; travel is increasing; mail is at the highest point in history; tobacco firms report an increase in business in spite of the cancer campaign against cigarettes; sale of air conditioners has reached a new high; telephone lines are busier than during the past year; Christmas sales are up in gift shows, over last year; electricity has shown an increase of 7%; steel is not up to war time production; new car sales are under last year.

On the whole, retailers report a fair increase in business in keeping with the trend of the times.

Whatever recession that appears to be on the surface could quickly be cured by a good rain in the Panhandle.

The progress of every community depends upon its public-spirited, unselfish leadership.

Intolerance is the one subject that some people write about and then fail to practice.

Adlai Stevenson Asked to Come To the Aid of Ralph Yarborough

When it was announced that Adlai Stevenson was coming to Texas to speak for Yarborough, the followers of the Austin man threw their hats in the air and rejoiced that so great a Democrat as Stevenson would take time out from his campaign for the presidency in 1956 to come to Texas in support of their man. This was a master stroke. Yes, indeed.

But when they realized that their man was laying himself liable to criticism for encouraging the support of a Northern Democrat, which meant that Ralph was sponsoring the entire program which was opposed by Texas Democrats, the Yarborough bunch cooled off in a hurry.

When the President spoke a few kind words in favor of his fellow Texan, Governor Shivers, whom he had known for many years and had been closely associated with, the Yarborough bunch cried to high heaven.

They were fearful that Shivers was getting support which Ralph could never get. Perhaps they should be crying in wounded pains because a number of neighboring Governors had dropped kind words in Texas in favor of Shivers.

Yes, sir, this campaign has developed many, many crude and cruel situations, depending upon the viewpoint of the fellow whose oxen is gored in the fracas.

Yarborough Says That He Fights For the Liberation of Texas

Mr. Yarborough says that he is conducting a campaign of "liberation."

We wonder just what this "liberalized" campaign means.

Primarily it means a campaign to "liberatize" the Democratic party so that Yarborough may be elected Governor. He complains a lot about Governor Shivers wanting a third term, just as though the voters should be hogtied and thrown his way.

It means that Yarborough supports the theory of Adlai Stevenson, who told Allan Shivers very frankly that if he was president that he would veto any tidelands legislation, regardless of the claim of Texas.

It means that Texas will have a sales tax or an income tax since Ralph has promised to spend millions of dollars which the State does not have at the present time.

It means that Ralph Yarborough is attempting to buy a ticket into the mansion at Austin with YOUR tax money and money that your children will put up.

It means that Yarborough is strictly a class candidate, in the hands of the Negroes and the CIO, which puts up the money to fight his political battles.

Go to the polls on August 28 and squelch such an ambitious program of one man who is determined to buy his way into the Governor's office with YOUR tax money.

Nothing Is Wrong With America Is Verdict of Newspaper Co-ed

A co-ed newspaper woman in a neighboring university was required to write a theme. That is nothing unusual, but the subject was a little different. The subject for her theme was:

"What is wrong with America?"

After much thought and meditation she turned in a blank sheet of paper with this notation: "I can find nothing wrong with America."

What a revelation! What an admission! What a girl!

Most of us would grab the opportunity of pouring out our souls selfishly and tell what all had happened wrong to us in this America.

We say "selfishly" advisedly. For what is wrong with this America—excepting that we cannot have everything we personally want; at the time when we want it?

So long as we have co-eds like this who can honestly and sincerely say that there is nothing wrong with America, we will continue living in the finest and greatest country on the face of the globe.

Business and Religious Leaders Are Learning the Need of Church

We are more and more impressed with the large groups of business men, labor union officials and union members, and all other classes of men who toil are being impressed with the Church and its work.

Men are giving more of their time and their talents to the work of the Church than ever before. They realize more and more that America can only be saved through the work of laymen.

For too long a time it has been the theory that business and religion could and would not work hand in hand.

This is not the case, as too many men in high places have already proved. The Church directs men to a better way of life, and there is always the present necessity for better living on the part of our citizenship.

No War in 23 Years

For the first time in 23 years there is no war in the world.

Where are we going, and what shall we do with the peace that the world enjoys today?

France and England are broke nations.

We shall be broke unless we can stop the "give away" group which thinks that we should give away the resources of this nation.

"No War"—we cannot build the economy of the nation upon war.

Hot Dogs and Baseball

During the baseball season it is estimated that Americans eat 2,624,640,000 hot dogs and drink an equal number of cold drinks at our baseball parks.

While the "hot dog" is purely an American institution, we wonder what about the tummies of all the people who eat these blasted things!

There are a number of couples waiting "until next year" to build that house. And that has been going on for eight years or more!

The idea that nations, or races, are equal is an obvious falsehood, but such proclamations pay dividends for various reasons.

Why is it that the individual with the most money, or the loudest mouth, usually dominates the social climbers' circle?

Setting Criminal Bail Is Little Understood in Texas

From time to time there is a great deal of talk about the need for revision of Texas laws relating to criminal bail bonds. Since this is a topic about which most people have more curiosity than knowledge, perhaps a brief explanation of bail bond procedures will be of interest. However, in today's column there will be no attempt to discuss possible defects in the system.

In the United States a defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until his guilt is established beyond a reasonable doubt. His guilt or innocence is established at his trial — not when he is arrested.

With this concept in mind it is not hard to see why the right to bail in criminal cases is guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, with the exception of capital cases. A capital crime is one which the punishment may be death. In Texas murder, treason, rape and robbery with firearms are capital offenses.

All prisoners are bailable in Texas except where the proof is evident that a capital offense has been committed and it is probable that a jury will assess the death penalty.

An officer making an arrest is required by law to take the accused promptly before a magistrate. It is the duty of the magistrate to examine into the truth of the accusation made. He determines whether the accused should be discharged or bailed or held without bail. If bail is set for the defendant, the magistrate must determine the amount. The law provides a procedure for reviewing these decisions before the Court of Criminal Appeals.

When an accused is on bail when his trial commences he has the right to remain on bail during the trial of his case. Where the punishment of a defendant has been assessed at confinement in the penitentiary for 15 years or less the defendant has the right to remain on bail pending the appeal of his case. If the penalty is more than 15 years the defendant is kept in custody from the moment the jury returns its verdict.

The Constitution also says that bail may not be set in excessive amount. What is considered a reasonable amount depends largely upon the circumstances and the risk involved. Bail must be set high enough to assure the court and the state that the person will not run away, but will return and submit to trial on the date set.

The judge usually will ask the prosecuting attorney for a recommendation as to the amount of bail. The accused's attorney may then ask that the amount recommended be reduced, giving his reasons. The judge will settle on an amount he believes reasonable to assure the accused's presence at the trial.

WATERED

An English housewife was complaining to her dairyman about the quality of his milk.

"Short o' grass, feed, mum; short o' grass feed at this time of the year," said the milkman. "Bless you," them cows of mine are just as sorry as I am. I often stands and watches 'em crying because they feel somehow as their milk don't do 'em credit. You don't believe me?"

"Oh, yes, I believe you," said the woman coldly, "but I wish in the future you'd see they don't let all the tears go into my can."

"Heck;" and you're Required Reading."

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

Some Congressmen privately say one of the discouraging facets of their job is fact there is too little tendency for independent businessmen to stand on their own feet; too much dependence upon Congress acting on every situation.

* * *

C. W. Harder

It is impossible, they say, for Congress to legislate for every abuse that crops up. There should be more action along old maxim "The Lord helps those that help themselves."

* * *

Illustrative is present growth of discount sales clubs formed for use of employees of large companies whereby they can buy at near wholesale, eliminating legitimate retailer.

* * *

This involves weird facts. Corporations promoting cut rate clubs often refuse to stop practice on ground "they build morale and improve public relations."

* * *

And there is a fat paradox.

* * *

Because many of these corporations depend on retailers for distribution and sale of their own products. Yet, they will cut throats of retailers to "improve public relations."

* * *

In addition, manufacturers depending on retailers, are aggressively selling these discount clubs, wondering why their legitimate retail volume falls off.

* * *

"There's something wrong with the system" they say, ignoring fact they are actively wrecking the system.

* * *

Congress has also been asked to step into chaotic auto situation to stop "bootlegging" new cars as used cars.

* * *

Franchise dealers of Big Autos have little, or nothing to say, about how many cars they will take from the factory.

* * *

But major makers racing to drive others out of business are paying little attention to the needs of the market.

* * *

Result has been that new car dealers to avoid drowning in sea of cars forced on them, wholesale to used car dealers. This practice is not a remedy; merely postpones day of reckoning.

* * *

It is understood factories have made veiled threats to remove new car advertising from newspapers not making certain classified ads for used cars are bona fide used cars.

* * *

Yet it is not duty of a newspaper to police handling of products. And there is something smacking of Kremlin methods in threats of reprisals for not conforming.

* * *

So many Congressmen would like to see both Federal Trade Commission and Justice Department snowed under with requests to enforce anti trust laws quickly, effectively.

* * *

In addition, many in Washington feel it is high time for some agency, against which reprisals cannot be launched, to give adequate publicity to the firms who depend on retailers, yet encourage employee discount club, and on firms who depend on retailers, yet sell discount houses. While the principle of the "blacklist" is not an American one, it has already been demonstrated that some neo-monopolistic corporations do not hesitate to employ tactics of Kremlin. This poses a moral question. "Is it better to slowly starve as gentlemen, or fight fire with fire?"

New Credit Law On Homes Given By Local Builder

Families in Canyon desiring to build, buy, or modernize a home can now take advantage of the most favorable credit terms ever offered, following recent Congressional approval of the new federal housing act, according to C. R. Burrow of Burrow Lumber Co., local retail lumber dealer and member of the Public Affairs Committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"The new legislation permits lower down payments, a longer period for repayment of mortgage loans, and larger loans than ever have been offered on single-family homes insured by the FHA, including older homes which are resold," Mr. Burrow said.

"The more favorable terms authorized on existing homes means that it will be easier for families to sell the home in which they now live when they wish to purchase a new one.

"While the terms of FHA's Title I repair and modernization loans remain the same, the new act gives home owners greater protection against unscrupulous operators who have misused these loans in the past.

"The public still can borrow sums up to $2500 with three years to pay and no downpayment required for essential home improvements and repairs and is assured of full protection against fraud or misrepresentation when loans are arranged through established local materials suppliers and lending institutions.

"Under the new housing act, FHA will insure loans on new homes up to $20,000 and downpayments may be as low as 5 per cent on the first $9000 of approved valuation and 75 per cent of the remainder. The repayment period on mortgages may run as long as 30 years."

OR KICKING OVER THE MILK

Pa Fernfrill is getting pretty tired of that new boy friend of Flossie's who brings her home so late every night.

"I don't want to be narrow-minded about this, Flossie," he expostulated the other day. "I don't care how long he stays here but I wish you would stop him from taking the morning paper off the porch when he leaves."

AN AXIOM EXPLAINED

The taxi came to a halt. The fare descended a trifle uncertainly and proceeded to search his pockets thoroughly.

"Sorry, old man," he said finally, "but I haven't a cent."

Then, seeing the driver frowning, he added.

"That's the fact, old man. You know, you can't get blood out of a stone."

"No," agreed the driver, rolling up his sleeves, "but what makes you think you're a stone?"

He had no crown, but he was kind;
He had no throne, but he was strong;
Good deeds, he did, and loving words
He said, the whole day long.

"But how did his boss find out?"

"Bill ran over him."

We, too, at times come nigh to lose our hope,
When with life's evils we no more can cope,
And in the dark with heavy hearts we grope,
But Gid sees otherwise. —Oxenham

The Atomic Energy Commission has set in motion a project aimed at developing a new kind of atomic furnace for the generation of cheap electric power. The AEC has approved a $10,000,000 project in which the commission and North American Aviation, Inc., of Los Angeles will work on the development of the nation's first sodium-graphite reactor—an atomic furnace that will use slightly enriched uranium or a combination of thorium and U-233 as fuel. The experimental furnace is due to be operating by mid-1957.

SOUTHEAST ASIAN DEFENSE

The State Department has announced that plans are being arranged "through diplomatic channels in a number of çapitals" for a conference of Western and Asian nations. The tentative plans call for a conference to begin consideration of a defensive alliance for Southeast Asian countries late in August or early in September, to be held possibly at Baguio, the summer capital at the Philippines.

REASON ENOUGH

Two buzzards were lazily soaring over the desert when a jet-propelled plane zipped by them, its exhaust throwing out flame and smoke. As it whizzed out of sight, one of the buzzards remarked: "That bird was really in a hurry?"

EXPOSED

"Why are you fidgeting about, Oscar?" asked the teacher sternly. Oscar didn't answer, but the class tattle-tale did. "He's got a pin, teacher," he cried.

"Take it away from him and bring it here," commanded the teacher.

A little later Oscar was called on to read. He remained sitting. "Stand up," said the teacher sharply.

Oscar got red, but didn't budge. "I can't teacher," he gulped.

"I've had enough of this foolishness," exclaimed the teacher. "Why can't you stand up?"

Oscar fidgeted some more and blurted out — "Because that pin you took away from me held my pants up!"

"Section 51-b. (a) The State Building Commission is hereby created. Its membership shall consist of the Governor, the Attorney General and the Chairman of the Board of Control. The Legislature may provide by law for some other State official to be a member of this Commission in lieu of the Chairman of the Board of Control, and in the event said State official has not already been confirmed by the Senate as such State official he shall be so confirmed as a member of the State Building Commission in the same manner that other State officials are confirmed.

"(b) The State Building Fund is hereby created. On or before the first day of January following the adoption of this amendment, and each year thereafter, the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of money necessary to pay Confederate pensions for the ensuing calendar year as provided by the constitution and laws of this State. Thereupon each year the State Treasurer shall transfer forthwith from the Confederate Pension Fund to the State Building Fund all money except that needed to pay the Confederate pensions as certified by the Comptroller. This provision is self-enacting. The State Building Fund shall be expended by the Commission upon appropriation by the Legislature for the uses and purposes set forth in subdivision (c) hereof.

"(c) Under such terms and conditions as are now or may be hereafter provided by law, the Commission may acquire necessary real and personal property, salvage and dispose of property unsuitable for State purposes, modernize, remodel, build and equip buildings for State purposes, and negotiate and make contracts necessary to carry out and effectuate the purposes herein mentioned.

"The first major structure erected from the State Building Fund shall be known and designated as a memorial to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Confederate States of America, and shall be devoted to the use and occupancy of the Supreme Court and such other courts and State agencies as may be provided by law. The second major structure erected from the State Building Fund shall be a State office building and shall be used by whatever State agencies as may be provided by law.

"Under such terms and conditions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law, the State Building Commission may expend not exceeding five (5%) percent of the moneys available to it in any one year, for the purpose of erecting memorials to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Confederate States of America. Said memorials may be upon battlefields or other suitable places within or without the boundaries of this State. The authorization for expenditures for memorials herein mentioned shall cease as of December 31, 1965.

"Under such terms and conditions as are now or may hereafter be permitted by law, the State Building Commission may expend not exceeding Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars in the aggregate for the purpose of erecting memorials to the Texans who served in the Armed Forces of the Republic in the Texas War for Independence. Said memorials may be erected upon battlefields, in cemeteries, or other suitable places within or without the boundaries of this State. The authorization for expenditures for memorials herein mentioned shall cease as of December 31, 1965.

"(d) The State ad valorem tax on property of Two (2c) Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation now levied under Section 51 of Article III of the Constitution as amended by Section 17, of Article VII (adopted in 1947) is hereby specifically levied for the purposes of continuing the payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Article III, Section 51, and for the establishment and continued maintenance of the State Building Fund hereby created.

"(e) Should the 53rd Legislature enact a law or laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such shall not be invalid by reason of their anticipatory character."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of Texas as the general election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1954, at which election those favoring such amendment shall have printed or written on their ballot the following:

> FOR the amendment transferring that portion of the Confederate Pension Fund not needed for the payment of Confederate pensions to the State Building Fund to be used for State building purposes as may be provided by law, and also permitting not more than six (6%) percent of such fund to be used for memorials for Texans who served in the Texas Revolution and in the armed forces of the Confederate States.

"It sure is nice to have some trout or a piece of bear meat around whenever that's just what I feel like eating. I can live last year's fishing and hunting trip over again, and enjoy a good meal to boot. I recommend a freezer to anyone who goes hunting or fishing."

A sportsman like Mr. McMahen gets a real pleasure out of sharing his catch with friends. And Mrs. McMahen finds it easy to prepare a fish dinner in a hurry. Right after the catch, she puts cracker meal on the fish, cooks and freezes them. When friends drop in, a fresh fish dinner is just a matter of warming an already prepared meal.

Hearing on Soil Conservation Is Set For Aug. 17

Randall County land owners are invited to attend a continuation of public hearing on the proposition of the creation of a Soil Conservation District. The hearing will be in the District Courtroom at Canyon on August 17 at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The State Soil Conservation Board is holding this hearing in response to a request by petition of local land owners. At the first hearing on May 14, the land owners present at the hearings gave unanimous approval to the creation of a district, but the boundaries were not definitely located.

At the hearing on August 17, all of Randall County and the south portion of Potter County will be invited. The boundaries of the proposed district may be set to include a smaller area than is called for, but the boundaries cannot be extended without more hearings.

If the landowners present at the hearing favor the creation of a district and agree on boundaries, the State Conservation Board shall call an election for the purpose of creating a district. Approval must be given by two-thirds of those eligible land owners voting, before a district can be created.

Singers Will Meet Sunday

The Randall County Singing will be held at the Assembly of God Church in Canyon at 2:30 o'clock, next Sunday afternoon.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Music Camp Will Close Two Weeks Work With Major Program Friday

It will be a four-star plus attraction Friday night when West Texas Music Camp students wind up two weeks of intensive training with a "grand finale" concert at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to hear the camp's three bands and choir and see performances by top-flight twirlers on the program on the West Texas State College campus.

Each of the camp's four major organizations is composed of about 75 members, and each will perform, with a number of twirling exhibitions interspersed between. During the past two weeks the groups have practiced twice daily in preparation for the program.

Dr. Alvin Edgar, Iowa State College music director, and his Symphonic Band will lead off the program with the "National Emblem March" by Bagley, to be followed by "Famous Largo" by Haydn-Harris, "Strains from Erin" by Cailliet, "March of the Steel Men" by Belsterling, and either a "Vincent Youmans Fantasy," composed of five of Youmans' popular selections, or a "Colorama," made up of four popular numbers arranged by Yoder from De Rose's compositions.

The second band, directed by Jack Lee, University of Arizona band director, will play the "Emblem of Unity" march. "The Wayfaring Stranger," a folk song arranged by Lee; "The Palo Duro Canyon Serenade," a composition by the director, "Spirit of '76" march featuring Ted Otis in a twirling exhibition; "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes;" and winding up with the West Texas State fight song, "On, On Buffaloes."

The camp choir, directed by Dr. Houston Bright, WT associate professor, will sing ten selections. These include "Ding Dong Merrily on High," arranged by Candlyn, "Heavely Light," by Kopylow, "David's Lamentation" by Billings, "Where'er You Walk" by Handel, "Night Song" by Harley, "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves" by Purcell, "Never Tell Thy Love" by Bright; "The Happy Wanderer" by Moller-Ehret-Lamont, "The Ash Grove" by Maryott, and "My Soul is a Witness for My Lord," arranged by Rhea.

Completing the program will be the appearance of the band directed by Hiram Henry of Oklahoma A&M College. This group will play a march, "Men of Might" by Meretta, an overture to "Lochinvar" by Buchtel, "Tenderly" by Lawrence and Gross, "Gypsy Gayety" by Bennett, "Little Bop Riding Hood" by Foreman, and "Stand By March" by Mesang.

whether Shivers should be elected," stated the General.

Reports were heard from all of the counties in this area.

A breakfast was held Monday morning at the College Cafeteria of Randall county workers. Mayor Hosea Foster called the meeting to order and J. Evetts Haley laid before the group the plans for the second primary.

For the benefit of those who did not attend the Randall County Democratic convention, Haley said that meeting had challenged the credentials of the Siuth Amarillo delegation because "the commissioners court in 1952 had split their precinct and this one delegation could not represent both precincts."

Haley declared the Amarillo delegation plans to send delegates to the state convention, and that both their delegation and the group chosen by the Canyon people will go before the credentials committee seeking to be seated at the state meeting.

"We will stand on the issue we raised regarding the division of the precinct," Haley said.

The meeting Monday named a finance committee for the runoff campaign.

The committee includes Levi Cole, Jack Taylor, C. R. Burrow, Clarence Thompson, Truett Hull, J. D. Barker and Earl O'Keefe.

Named to the publicity committee were Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mrs. R. A. Neblett, Mrs. Clyde Davis, Roy Cheatham, and Eddie Conner.

A telephone committee was named, including Mesdames Ray Campbell, Harry Brown, Hosea Foster, J. Evetts Haley, Jr., Paul Lindsey, T. B. McCarter, J. W. Kleinschmidt, J. B. Hickman, O. W. Parker, and J. D. Barker.

Music Students Appear at Rotary

Students enrolled in the West Texas State Music Camp appeared in an entertainment program of the Rotary Club Tuesday. The program was in charge of Bill Latson who is a member of the music department, assisted by Miss Matilda Gaume. Others on the program were students from various high schools of the area.

Truett Hull reported on an article in this month's issue of The Rotarian.

Guy Harp reported that the attendance record of the club was greatly improved.

Visitors were H. Leroy Lynn of Springfield, Ill.; Rev. A. B. Duncan, Jr., of Roxton; Lee Reeves of San Angelo; Clarence Kincaid, Rev. Curtis W. Strader, Jr., of Canyon; Albert Edgar of Ames, Iowa; Fred Carpenter of Borger; Ralph Archer of Stillwater, Okla.; Jerry Brown, Forrest Barnes, Thos. F. Cartwright, Thurman Whitis, Robert Hibbitts, R. E. Nicklies, Bill Griggs, Roy Boger, Gordon K. Morrison, Floyd Hemphill, Emil F. Myers, Allen Early, all of Amarillo.

Salmon Rolls Are Delightful in Hot Weather

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

ALMOST everyone enjoys canned salmon. At our house, we use it a lot in summertime for refreshing salads with a heft.

Fish, remember, is a source of top quality protein, equal to meat, cheese, fowl and eggs. Canned salmon, for example, is rich in calcium and phosphorus—and is plentiful in vitamins.

So you see, when you use it in a hot-weather salad, you get good nutrition as well as eye appeal. The choice packs are the red salmons—Chinook, Sockeye and Coho.

Try salmon salad in frankfurter rolls. Ever eat salmon slaw? Really good!

Salmon Rolls
(4 servings)

One 1-pound can red salmon, ⅓ cup mayonnaise, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons prepared mustard, 1 tablespoon lemon or lime juice, ¾ cup diced celery, 4 frankfurter rolls.

Flake salmon. Combine mayonnaise, salt, mustard and lemon or lime juice. Add celery to salmon and mix well. Split frankfurter rolls through center; lightly spread with additional mayonnaise.

Pile salmon mixture in rolls. If desired, garnish with capers and sliced stuffed olives.

Salmon Slaw
(6 servings)

One 1-pound can salmon, flaked; 2 cups shredded cabbage, ½ cup diced celery, ¼ cup chopped green pepper or drained pickle relish, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon Tabasco, ½ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing, salad greens.

Combine salmon, shredded cabbage, celery and green pepper or pickle relish. Mix together lemon juice, salt, Tabasco and mayonnaise and add to salmon mixture and toss lightly. Serve on salad greens. If desired, serve as filling for tomatoes.

Salmon salad tastes especially good when wrapped in frankfurter rolls, as shown above.

Southwestern Sets New Safety Record For Electric Plants

Southwestern Public Service Company employees have now worked two-million consecutive man-hours without a lost-time accident, the longest continuous accident-free period in the company's history, and one of the top safety records among the nation's electric light and power companies.

Only seven other electric companies in the country have achieved the two-million mark for the entire company, the records of the Edison Electric Institute reveal. The EEI award for recognition of million man-hour or more safety accomplishments was inaugurated in 1943, and to be the eighth out of nearly 300 member companies to reach the two million accident-free man-hours goal is a significant safety achievement for Southwestern Public Service Company.

The present unbroken string of accident-free days began on January 30 of this year. The company is averaging less than one lost-time accident for every million man-hours, as compared with a utility average of 11.50 lost-time accidents for every million man-hours worked.

The old saying, "You couldn't do it in a thousand years" applies to this recent safety accomplishment, for it would take one man a thousand years to accumulate two-million man-hours without a lost-time accident. The 1850 Public Service Company employees need just over three months to accumulate a one-million total.

Three-million without an accident is the next goal, and the Public Service folks are after it.

Miss M. Moss Richardson entertained Mrs. Welsch, of Amarillo, and Mrs. Minnie Allen of Pampa in her home this last week. Miss Richardson also visited with Mrs. Barnett and Mr. and Mrs. Thielman in White Deer for four days. Mrs. Thielman is the daughter of Mrs. Barnett and was visiting with her mother.

Pictorial Panel in W. T. Library

A pictorial panel exhibit illustrating the theme of Columbia University's Bicentennial anniversary, "Man's Right to Knowledge and the Free Use Thereof," is on display in the West Texas State College library. The panels will remain through August.

The exhibit includes 25 panels covering five aspects of the university's 200-year anniversary theme: "The Inclusiveness of Man," "The Values of Knowledge," "Man's Right to Knowledge," "Man's Right to the Free Use of Knowledge," and "The Responsibilities of Knowledge."

The panels cover a wide range of topics, from the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights to "The Teacher and Free Speech." A typical panel is one that is used to illustrate the section on "Development of Citizens," which is a striking photograph of elder citizens at a town meeting.

Columbia's Bicentennial will be a year-long observance, consisting of several conferences, convocations and other special events. Columbia was founded in 1754 as King's College by royal charter of King George II. Among its earliest students were Alexander Hamilton and John Jay.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Parker and son went to Roswell, N. M., Sunday to meet Karen who had been visiting at Ft. Bliss, El Paso, with Lt. and Mrs. Temple Wilhelmsen, who brought her to Roswell. Lt. Wilhelmsen is a nephew of the Parkers and lived in Canyon for some time with them.

Week-end guests in the home of Mrs. W. S. Meyers were Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Doak from Lubbock.

Owen Hammons and Mrs. Thelma Crandall of Denver, Colo., spent the week-end in the parental J. P. Hammons home.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

President Eisenhower expects the special Senate committee appointed to pass judgment on Senator Joseph McCarthy will put off a report until after the November elections. It remains a White House wish that the Wisconsin Senator not be called upon to participate in the coming political campaigns.

Mr. Eisenhower deals directly with Vice President Richard Nixon on all White House moves to apply restraints upon Senator McCarthy. Vice President Nixon is understood to have held a veto over many proposals in the McCarthy dispute.

The President is coming around to the idea that Theodore Roosevelt was right when he said that, in dealing with the outside world, this country should "speak softly and carry a big stick." Orders are out to do less talking about how U. S. thinks the world should be run.

Paul Hoffman, Marshall Plan head in the Truman Administration, continues to exercise a good deal of influence on President Eisenhower's foreign-policy ideas. Mr. Hoffman and the President are close friends.

Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense, is converted to the idea that some of the planned cuts in military spending are going to have to be abandoned even if that does complicate the problem of George Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury, who is having trouble balancing the Government's budget.

Admiral Arthur Radford, Chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the three staff chiefs are unanimous in their conclusions that the French defeat in Indo-China makes it necessary for this country to spend more, not less, on defense.

John A. Hannah, former Assistant Secretary of Defense, disclosed the Government's new man-power program—armed forces of 6 million men "on call"—without prior clearance from the White House. The White House had promised Congress it would not reopen the draft issue until next year. That's why the Hannah statement got a cool response from members of the White House staff.

Val Peterson, Civil Defense Administrator, suddenly is finding himself in the middle of top-level planning operations. New weapons in Russia's hands have forced the White House to give more than lip service to plans for dealing with home-defense problems that would come with any war.

The National Security Council—top-level policy group that was sup—posed to guide the U. S. in world affairs—is being pictured by insiders as a glorified debating society. Trend is to form smaller groups to do the planning.

William Knowland, California Senator and Senate Majority Leader, is being tipped that the White House staff is critical of him and compares him unfavorably with Charles Halleck, Indiana Representative, who is Majority Leader in the House. Senator Knowland, the White House group feels, is too independent.

Oveta Culp Hobby, Welfare Secretary in the Eisenhower Cabinet, is going to try again in 1955 to sell Congress on a Government plan for reinsurance of private health-insurance plans. Mrs. Hobby ran into great difficulty with Congress on some of her plans.

Democrats, hoping for gains in the farm areas of the country, are planning to point out that the U. S. Government is using large sums of money to stabilize prices of rubber, tin, copper and other products from abroad while critical of the use of dollars to support farm prices at home.

Sir Winston Churchill, Britain's Prime Minister, is not at all happy about the pressure that was applied to him by the U. S. to bring about the deal that will result in withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal. Sir Winston doubted that this was the best solution of a difficult problem.

Clement Attlee, British Labor Party leader, is expected to say some kind words about Sir Winston when he sees Russia's Georgi Malenkov. Sir Winston's "be reasonable to Russia" theme has cut the ground out from under Labor Party policy, so Mr. Attlee would like to get credit in case Malenkov should invite Sir Winston to visit Moscow.

Soviet spy Yuri Rastovorov, who changed sides in Tokyo, is reported to have disclosed that Russia's spy organization had help on a high level in the British Fireign Office.

Soviet asks Iran to explain defense talks with West.

The Soviet asks the U. N. to call a world parley on trade.

Just Between You, Me . . . . . . and the Gatepost

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Last week was a memorable one for the parents of youngsters in our community. The thing that made it so was the inoculation of gamma globulin for youngsters. The inoculations removed a great amount of anxiety from the parents of these youngsters, at least for a few weeks.

It is believed that the Polio Foundation is on the verge of a permanent inoculation for polio but research has slowed down to practically nothing because the Foundation is out of money. The only way research can continue is through public contributions.

Probably one of the worst things about polio is the large number of groundless rumors that get out about someone having it who doesn't. No doubt you have heard such a rumor within the past week. The rumor was out that several people had polio and a check proved that those people in question hadn't even been sick. Our sentiments are, "Wherever these rumors start, they shouldn't."

The city has been doing its part in keeping polio down to a minimum. Their's is a preventive type thing of spraying the streets and alleys. The men worked late several nights last week in order to get the town well sprayed.

A lot of people gave some thought to the political question after our County Democratic convention received a sensational type news story last week. Before losing your temper, you should know that arguing is politics. One side always wins and the other side loses. It was inevitable that one day the people of South Amarillo and the people of Canyon found themselves opposing each other on some question. It just happened that it was a political question and if you're one of those who was seriously shocked by the news story you should watch the political scene. You'll see such a bubbling cauldron just about every two years on the county and state levels and on the national level each four years.

High School Coach Guy T. Harrison was in last week. By the time this goes to press you'll probably already have one of the little cards Hosea Foster's company puts out each year with the high school football schedule on it. It's a significant sign of the time of year, meaning school and football will begin again in a few weeks.

Lawrence Brotherton mentioned the nearness of school opening the other day. He and the other classroom teachers will start the nine month grind all over again. Those teachers do a wonderful job, put out a lot of work during the school term and the one bright thing about it is they seem to enjoy it very much. It couldn't be for the money involved either, for they don't make much of that.

All youngsters with a good bicycle should enter the bicycle parade to be held Saturday. There'll be a lot of fun, a lot of prizes, and some safety instruction. Entry blanks can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce office. The entry blanks must be filled out and returned at the Chamber of Commerce office by noon Friday.

A few serious thoughts sometimes make life more pleasant. A few things to constantly remember are:

The only time it's dangerous to be behind the 8-ball is when you don't have the cue.

Talent is 90 percent study and work plus 10 percent directed effort.

The world would be a better place to live if people only valued the rights of others half as highly as they do their own.

AIR FORCE ACADEMY

The Air Force has asked Congress for an initial appropriation of $14,338,000 for its new academy, the counterpart of West Point and Annapolis, to be built near Colorado Springs, Colorado. Congress has already authorized an expenditure of $26,000,000 during the current fiscal year, $1,000,000 of it on a temporary academy to be occupied until the permanent one is ready. The temporary academy will probably be located at Lowry Field.

God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. —Old Testament.

INDUSTRIAL OUTPUT

The industrial production of the nation in June showed no material change from May, staying at the seasonally adjusted index figure of 124 per cent of the 1947-49 average. The Reserve Board reported the June rate ran slightly above the figure of March and April but was nine per cent below June 1953.

AN HONEST THIEF?

Santa Monica, Calif.—The thief who robbed the clothesline of Mrs. Delores D. Stack didn't know too much about the value of women's clothes. In place of the three pairs of silk panties taken by the robber, there was a $1 bill attached to the line with clothespin.

Texans On Trip To East Eat Up The Sights On Geography Tour

(Editor's Note: Some 70 West Texas State College summer students are touring the eastern portion of the United States and Canada in two chartered buses, on the annual field geography tour, conducted by Dr. Murry B. Measamer. A publicity committee on the first bus, has written the following account of part of their travels.)

The first bus load of the WTSC geography tour descended on this great metropolis (New York City) this evening (July 26) and, in a matter of minutes, had spread in all four directions.

They had had a strenuous day and were tired, but there were only two days and three nights to do "The Big Town," and no time must be wasted. We'll supply details of these excursions in a later report and backtrack a few days and some 400 miles to fill in the gap on our tour from Richmond, Va., to New York.

On Wednesday, the 21st, the group enjoyed a history lesson where history was made when they visited Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement in the New World; Yorktown, the site of Cornwallis's surrender to Washington at the close of the Revolutionary War; and Williamsburg, the old colonial capital and social center of the Virginia Colony from 1699 'till the end of English rule. The town was restored in 1926 to its almost exact original state, by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Many of its buildings are open to the public and the visitor may see the old Capitol Building, which contains the meeting room and council chambers of the House of Burgesses; the Royal Palace, where furnishings today give evidence of the comfort and charm provided for the Royal governors; the College of William and Mary, established in 1693; the old Raleigh Inn; many of the beautiful homes as they looked in that day; shops as they were when Virginia was a thriving English colony, and many more things of interest than we could possibly crowd into our limited time.

The group's two-day, whirlwind tour of Washington, D. C., left them breathless and deeply aware of the scope and magnitude of the "business" of running our country. The tour really began with a stop at Mt. Vernon, beautiful estate of George Washington, located on the Potomac River, some 16 miles from the capital city. Here we had lunch and picked up our guide, "Abe," whose lecture began, "There's lots to see and I aim to show it all to you."

After he had "toured" us until 6 p. m. that day and all day the following day, everyone was agreed that he had carried out the promise to the letter. We had guided tours of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, where some $46,000,000 in paper money is printed each day; the Washington Monument; Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials; the Pan-American Union Building; the White House; The Capitol Building, where we saw both Houses in session and sat in on a few minutes of the Senate filibuster on the Atomic Power Bill; old Christ Church, in Alexandria; the changing of the guard at the tomb of the unknown soldier at Arlington National Cemetery; and other points of interest too numerous to mention.

The morning of our second day in the capitol we "toured" ourselves through a part of the Smithsonian Institute, the Museum of Natural History, and the Mellon Art Gallery. The afternoon was free and individuals sought their own diversions.

An interesting sidetrip on our way from Washington to Philadelphia was to the Gettysburg National Cemetery, where a guide pointed out highlights of this historic site of one of the bloodiest battles of the Civil War, and the spot where Lincoln made his famous Gettysburg address, dedicating the ground.

In Philadelphia, the "City of Brotherly Love," a Gray Line tour took us to see such spots as Independence Square, which enshrines the Liberty Bell, and where the Constitution of the United States was framed, the Betsy Ross House, and other reminders of the past.

As you viewed them, you came to see, in fact, why this city is truly the birthplace of the American Nation.

At this almost half-way point of our tour, the only regret expressed has been that we don't have any longer to stay and to look, yet confidentally, a few people are already homesick for the wide open spaces of the Texas Panhandle.

Washington "Sidelights"

Our stopover in Washington provided the first real "leisure" time we had enjoyed and not a minute of it was wasted, including that spent catching up on sleep!

An outstanding sidelight was a visit with Ben Guill, a W. T. ex and now assistant to the Postmaster General. His winning smile and gracious manner were as evident as ever and made us feel most welcome and ever so important.

On Saturday afternoon, Dr. Anderson, Betty Vaughter, Wilma Hixson, Nettie and Mona McMasters, Beulah Peery, Mesdames G. M. Stewart, T. W. Collins and Lee Kidd, took an interesting side trip to Annapolis, Maryland, for a tour of the U. S. Naval Academy.

Dr. Measamer organized an unchartered tour on Saturday evening to Griffith Stadium to see the Washington Senators defeat the Detroit Tigers 2 to 1. Those accompanying him were Lloyd Parsons, Sadie Smith, Ola Jones, Dorothy Sims, Eddie Mae Scott, and Jessie White.

Some of the group enjoyed meeting Miss Emily Hoover, secretary to Sen. Cannon of Missouri and sister of Mrs. O. L. Coleman of Canyon. She lives at the Continental Hotel, which was our stopping place in the City.

Elva Lee Sheets' sister, Mrs. Bob Clark, (formerly Hettie Lou Bagley) of Oberlin, Ohio, met her in Washington and toured the city with us. Both Mr. and Mrs. Clark were W. T. graduates, class of '34. Mr. Clark now teaches in Oberlin College.

Betty Vaughter enjoyed a visit with her brother, Dr. W. I. Smalley, now employed in the Pentagon.

Genevieve Stinnett went to Bethesda, Maryland, for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Landt, former Texans.

Mrs. Clyde Duckwall visited relatives and took in points of interest in Baltimore, Md.

Mary Louise Blaine renewed acquaintance with a longtime friend, Miss Muriel Griffitts, whom she had known in grade school.

Josephine Denning visited with a great aunt and uncle whom she had never seen before.

Mrs. G. M. Stewart and the John R. Kirkwoods enjoyed seeing a mutual friend, Miss Savannah Tunnell, Secretary to Rep. George Mahon of Texas.

And, incidentally, our Washington guide, Abe Shapiro, was the father-in-law of Dr. Rex Rook of the Gholston Clinic in Amarillo and amazed us with his knowledge of the Panhandle metropolis, gleaned on a two-week's visit there earlier this summer.

The Small Business Administration recently announced that it has approved 524 business loans, totaling $30,896,262 since it began taking application from small companies last October. About 400 applications are being received by the SBA each month and about one-third of them are said to meet the agency's credit requirements.

READ THIS - - THEN VOTE FOR ALLAN SHIVERS

I. PUBLIC SCHOOLS:

(1) As a State Senator, Lieutenant Governor, and Governor, ALLAN SHIVERS has sponsored, supported or signed every major piece of school legislation during the past 20 years.

(2) During his administration the average salary of public school teachers has been increased more than $1,100 a year.

(3) State funds paid to public schools have been increased during Governor Shivers' administration from $107,914,884 to $210,800,000.00.

(4) The Teacher Retirement Program has been expanded.

(5) Public instruction for handicapped children has been made available.

II. HIGHER EDUCATION:

(1) The allotment of State funds to Amarillo College was substantially increased twice during Shivers' term — in 1951 and 1954.

(2) West Texas State College has made tremendous strides under Governor Shivers' administration. New buildings and permanent improvements costing over $1,500,000 have been completed or are under construction on the WTSC campus. The faculty has received increased salary and retirement benefits. The total appropriation for WTSC has increased from less than $600,000 in 1949 to more than $764,000 in 1954. West Texas Memorial Museum has received regular and increased appropriations from State funds.

(3) Higher Educational institutions generally have received the favorable attention of Allan Shivers as Governor. Their faculties and physical facilities have shown marked improvement.

III. STATE HOSPITALS AND SPECIAL SCHOOLS:

(1) One of Allan Shivers' first official acts as Governor of Texas was to call a special session of the Legislature to appropriate $20 million in additional administrative funds and $35 million in building funds to improve deplorable conditions then existing for the unfortunate patients in our state hospitals.

(2) The mental institutions of Texas were receiving an average of $516 per patient per year in state funds when Shivers became Governor. The national average was $636. Last year, Texas spent $766.50 per patient —

(3) Two new Tuberculosis Hospitals are now under construction at Harlengin and San Antonio.

(4) Allan Shivers is making CURE, rather than mere care, the watchword in our state hospitals.

IV. STATE INSTITUTIONS:

(1) Texas School for the Deaf — $2,500,000 for badly needed complete remodeling was appriated by 1954 special session of Legislature called by Governor Shivers for this and other purposes.

(2) Southwestern Medical School — $3,500,000 for facilities to train more doctors for Texas citizens.

(3) Texas Dental School — $1,187,500 for needed improvements.

(4) Texas Commission on Alcoholism created in 1953 upon recommendation of Governor Allan Shivers.

V. TIDELANDS:

Two years ago, the people of Texas told Allan Shivers to get the tidelands back for our school children. He got them.

Texas' rightful claim to the tidelands dates back to the Annexation Agreement of 1845. The federal government, in granting statehood to Texas, refused to accept the state's public lands because, if it had it also would have had to accept the Texas public debt of $10 million. Congress told Texas to keep its public lands, including the tidelands, and its debt.

Congress twice passed bills confirming Texas' title to its tidelands but President Truman vetoed both of them. Upon his re-election as Governor of Texas on a platform of getting back the tidelands, Shivers went to Illinois to determine if Adlai Stevenson would also veto the bill if elected President. Stevenson said he would.

Allan Shivers then gave his support to Eisenhower, who had pledged to return the tidelands to Texas school children. This has been done. The Texas public school funds have already been enriched by $32,000,000 in cash receipts from bonuses on a portion of the tidelands. Allan Shivers stands for Texas first; party second.

VI. HIGHWAYS AND ROADS:

(1) During his Administration, more miles of farm-to-market roads and state highways have been built than in any other comparable period. Last year, for instance, Texas added almost 9,000 miles of farm-to-market and state highways to its network of roads — an all-time record.

(2) Work has already begun on approximately 4,000 more miles of farm-to-market roads to be built during the next two years and on 2,662 miles of state highways.

(3) That the highway program of Allan Shivers' administration is promoting safety as well as convenience by the fact that the state last year had the second best safety record in the nation.

VII. OLD AGE ASSISTANCE:

Allan Shivers, while serving in the State Senate, wrote the Texas Old Age Assistance Law. Two years ago, he promised the old people of Texas he would seek a constitutional amendment to increase old age pensions. The people of Texas will vote on that amendment next November.

VIII. CANADIAN RIVER DAM:

(1) Canadian River Compact approved by Texas in 1951.

(2) Canadian River Municipal Water District created in 1953 under Allan Shivers' administration and signed by him as Governor.

(3) Governor Shivers asked that the Legislature provide for local ownership of Canadian River Dam in the Act regardless of how the Dam was to be financed. When the people of the Panhandle pay for the Dam they ought to own the Dam—or else they will have paid the price and find that the Federal Government owned the Dam.

(4) The Canadian River Dam is vital to the Panhandle's future — and Allan Shivers has always favored it.

IX. SEGREGATION:

(1) The United States Supreme Court has decreed that compulsory segregation in public schools is illegal. Allan Shivers believes that decision was one of the greatest invasions of state's rights in the history of the Court.

(2) Hasty, ill-advised action, the Governor believes, definitely would work hardships on people of both races. He still believes that local problems can be solved best on the local level by local people, and this is true of the segregation problem.

(3) "I will use every legal means at my disposal to maintain the public schools of Texas as they now exist, says Shivers.

X. PRISON REFORMS:

(1) Administration of the Texas Prison System today is recognized by experts as being among the best in the nation. Allan Shivers began working toward this goal when he first took office.

(2) In addition to prison improvements, the net cost per man per day in the prison system has been reduced 50% during Shivers' tenure as Governor.

(3) The work of the Youth Development Council among juvenile offenders has thrived under Governor Shivers. Increased facilities and improvements at Gatesville School for Boys and Gainesville School for Girls have been provided.

XI. LABOR:

Labor has prospered during Allan Shivers' Administration. It will continue to prosper as his leadership brings more industrial expansion and more new industries to Texas, creating more and better jobs.

The Governor's battle is not, and has not been, with laboring men but with the professional bosses who want to do the thinking for all labor and who also want to run the state government.

XII. INSURANCE:

(1) As far back as 1951, Shivers asked the Legislature to strengthen Texas insurance laws to protect the public.

(2) Allan Shivers has recommended tripling the number of examiners in the State Insurance Department and giving that Department the new laws necessary to back up its campaign against unsound companies.

XIII. COMMUNISM:

Texas was the first state in the Union to pass a law making membership in the Communist Party a felony. This law was proposed by Allan Shivers. The Communist Party has announced its intentions to overthrow by force the government of the United States. Allan Shivers believes, therefore, that anyone who is a member of the Communist Party is a part of that vile conspiracy.

XIV. AGRICULTURE & WATER CONSERVATION:

(1) Soil and water conservation constitute our number one domestic problem in Shivers' opinion.

(2) In 1952, Shivers appointed a Citizens Committee on Water Conservation. In 1953, its recommendations resulted in six basic water laws being enacted. The Committee is still actively at work.

(3) Shivers has secured funds for soil conservation, for an emergency feed program, for farm and ranch loans, and cheap hay program for drouth areas.

XV. ANTI-CORRUPTION:

(1) Free ballot restored in Duval County through efforts of Governor Shivers. Now for the first time in two generations, Duval County is rid of boss-rule, fear, intimidation, fraudulent elections, and misappropriation of public funds.

(2) Anti-Narcotics legislation secured in 1953 increased penalty for sale of narcotics to minors.

XVI. MISCELLANEOUS ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

(1) Abandoned refrigerators left accessible to children outlawed in 1953.

(2) Shivers advocated in his address to the 53rd Legislature and secured passage of a constitutional amendment to allow members of the Armed Forces to vote in Texas.

(3) Redistricting of the Legislature, as advocated by Shivers, increased Panhandle's representation in Legislature from 6 to 13 members in the House of Representatives and from 2 to 3 Senators.

XVII. ECONOMY AND FINANCES:

Despite the vast improvements made during Allan Shivers' administration as Governor, Texas still ranks among the lowest in the nation in per capita state taxes.

Unlike most states, Texas operates on a cash basis — never incurs public debt.

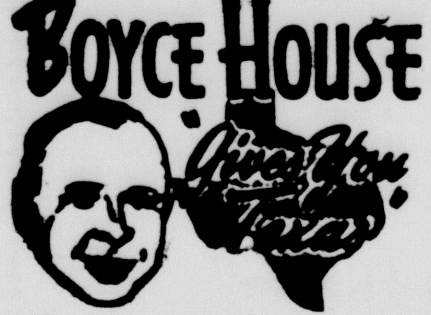
Thirty-one other states have an Income tax; thirty-three have a general sales tax. TEXAS HAS NEITHER A GENERAL SALES TAX NOR A STATE INCOME TAX; ALLAN SHIVERS IS OPPOSED TO BOTH AND HAS PROMISED THAT TEXAS WILL HAVE NEITHER AS LONG AS HE IS GOVERNOR.

ON THE BASIS OF THESE AND MANY OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS OF ALLAN SHIVERS AS GOVERNOR OF TEXAS TOO NUMEROUS TO MENTION HERE, WE CAN ALL BAND TOGETHER FOR THE COMMON PURPOSE OF PRESERVING TEXAS FOR TEXANS.

ALLAN SHIVERS STANDS FOR TEXAS FIRST!



The "road-runner," that remarkable fowl — remarkable in appearance and in characteristics — was the subject of an interesting article by Ralph A. Selle, in the Texas Press Messenger some years ago.

If peculiarities were quills, the Texas "road-runner" would be a queer porcupine. A bird that is not like other birds, a bird-curiosity that defies all bird attributes, an outlandish caricature of bird life in appearance and in every-day habits, this monstrosity in feathers streaks and volplanes, capers and monkey-shines along the edge of the chaparral thickets, along the edge of credulity.

His crazy-quilt color-pattern of blue and gray and white, set off by an unseemly top-knot bristling with drollery, and thus displayed from one point of a tri-square, seems to define a comedian.

In spite of his apparent awkwardness and lack of adaptation for running, this droll bird can throw his tail forward to a Spencerian angle, point his neck straight ahead and give an exhibition run that will keep him well ahead of a good pony. And these pony races seem to be made only as a matter of amusement, for he is an adept in gliding into a thicket whenever he wishes.

With most birds there is a marked difference in shades and color-markings of the sexes. This is usually noticeable in the depth and extent of the sheen, especially on the slim feathers on the neck, but not so with the road-runners. Males and female are marked alike.

It takes a good ornithologist to tell a male from a female in the field. There is, a slight difference in the voice; but since the bird will seldom utter a sound when flushed, the distinguishing quality of the "cr-r-r-r-t" is not very familiar.

Throughout its range, it has acquired many nicknames, most of which suggest a characteristic. Typical of these are "Chaparral Cock," "Swift-hawk," "Paisano" (Spanish, al paisano, fellow countryman), "War-bird," "Lizard-bird," "Running Cuckoo," "Ground Cuckoo," "Snake-bird," "Snake-killer," "Choor-ray-ah" (Spanish, la churrea, in imitation of its peculiar cry), "Matador," "Medicine Bird," "Streak Bird," "Ground Eagle," and "el Correo del Camino" (Spanish, applied because the bird seems to enjoy running in the road just ahead of a horseman).

The "chapparal cock" inhabits the low, throny brush and cactus thickets of the lower plains and the Rio Grande Valley.

The road-runner is not a table bird. The meat is muscular and tough and dry that of a hawk. It is a valuable bird and deserves protection in its natural state. Since it rids the country of snakes and lizards and insects, it should be welcomed everywhere.

No bird can be more entertaining around a camp. When treated kindly, one of these jokers will come to the camp regularly and perform the same stunt in the same way every day, and like a trained actor, it will retire when it has gone through its stunt.

State Capitol NEWS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN: Both candidates in the Texas gubernatorial second primary campaign are off and running.

Only 6,267 votes short of success in the first race, Governor Allan Shivers was encouraged by apparent control, gained at the county conventions, of the September 14 State Democratic Convention at Mineral Wells.

Shivers promised an "around-the-clock" fight for votes and spurred on his campaign forces over the state in a series of regional pep-talks.

Opening the second primary race with a talk on drouth and water problems, Shivers asked Texans to write him of their needs, their water problems, and their suggested solutions.

He also campaigned in some cities by shaking hands on street corners.

Yarborough Is Busy

Shivers' opponent, Ralph W. Yarborough of Austin, also planned to spend much time visiting various parts of the state in a search for votes.

Yarborough said in one speech that "this is the first time in five years that we're going to elect a Democratic governor."

He said he was receiving pledges every day from voters who either opposed him in the first primary or thought his cause was hopeless.

Yarborough scored what he called the "Republican press" for supporting Shivers and accused his opponent of a long list of misdealings, including the circulation of false charges.

Wants Water Board

Yarborough has called for the creation of a Texas Water Board, patterned after the Railroad Commission, with members elected by the people.

He said that if elected Governor, he would recommend to the Legislature in January that such a board be established.

Continuing on the water and drouth theme, Yarborough proposed the construction of 25 dams over the state, "comparable to those built by the Lower Colorado River Authority."

These dams, he said, should be planned and constructed under the supervision of the water board, and be financed like those built by the LCRA — by bonds which "in 30 to 40 years would pay themselves out by the sale of water alone."

It is Yarborough's contention that "industries are refusing to build in Texas, and some already here are pulling out because of the water shortage?"

What's the Cost?

Shivers' supporters got out their scratch pads and tried to figure out what it would cost to carry out the campaign pledges made by Yarborough, including a veteran's bonus, an elaborate tracery of dams on Texas rivers, vastly expanded highways and huge increases in expenditures for public welfare.

Shivers' calculators contended that the cost amounted to something like $3.5 billion per year in state taxes.

They pointed out that the present total cost of state government is $0.5 billion per year, or one-seventh of the other figure.

Yarborough said he wanted the money to come from a tax on gas pipelines.

Shivers' backers point out that such a tax already has been declared unconstitutional.

Warning System Coming

Texas soon will have a modern storm warning system to spot danger miles away by radar, Governor Shivers announced.

Shivers said that completion of the system, called the most up-to-date in the world, will come in the next six weeks.

Already functioning as part of the radar chain are units in 11 cities. The radar net ties into the Department of Public Safety system, giving it Weather Bureau radar reports within two minutes after a warning is issued.

Texas Building Booms

Construction in Texas spiraled toward a record high in June, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Reported by the bureau was a predominance of commercial, industrial, highway, church, school, and government building.

Building permits issued throughout the state during the first half of 1954 exceeded totals for the same period last year by six per cent, the reports showed.

Liquor Revenue Up

Texas liquor revenue in June showed a $41,000 increase over the total for the same month last year, the monthly report of the Texas Liquor Control Board reveals.

June revenue this year was $1,425,179.13 with the largest part of the amount derived from beer and whiskey taxes.

The board also noted an apparent increase of moonshining over the state, with seizure of 11 illicit stills and arrest of six on moonshining charges.

FBI Agent Speaks

Two forms of crime are on the increase: car thefts and swindling-bad check passing.

So said Vernon H. Bailey, special agent of the FBI in San Antonio, in an Austin speech.

Car thefts inconvenience more people and cause a greater loss of property than any other form of crime, the agent said.

Short Snorts

The rule of 40 miles per hour minimum applies on a stretch of the Austin Expressway . . . Heroes and heroines of Texas education will be selected by a panel, announced A. Garland Adair of Austin, director of the Texas Heritage Foundation. Selections will be announced on School Centennial Day at the State Fair of Texas.

A Club Assembly of the Canyon Rotary Club was held Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan. Mr. Morgan is president of the club this year.

Following a picnic dinner in the back yard of the home, Mr. Morgan conducted the Assembly, which was attended by 25 club members.

Reports were read from the various committees of the club.

It was voted to spend about $100 on the Golden Anniversary history of the Club. A speaker for the ladies night was not selected.

Reader Says That Yarborough Tried Pin Falsehoods

The following letter explains itself:

To The Editor:

The election returns show that Yarborough's wild charges were completely false.

Ralph Yarborough charged that Governor Allan Shivers had made a deal with George Parr for the Duval County votes. This sounded ridiculous at the time, as Governor Shivers had sent the Rangers into Duval County and Parr was under indictment by a grand jury. The election returns, however, show that George Parr delivered his vote in Duval County to Yarborough, thus branding as absolutely false the charge which Yarborough had made.

Another charge which was answered by the election returns is the charge that Governor Allan Shivers committed some kind of fraud in a land deal down in Hidalgo County in the Rio Grande Valley. This county, where the land was located, gave Governor Shivers a smashing majority of more than 2 to 1. The voters in that area who knew all about the circumstances of the land deal, what land was involved, what the values were, and what the water situation was, were in better position to judge than any other people in Texas. Their great vote of confidence in Governor Shivers completely answers the smears, innuendoes and mud slinging which Ralph Yarborough indulged in in regard to this transaction.

And look at the returns from Austin and Travis County. This was where the insurance companies were investigated in court, and some found insolvent. This was the county where the insurance commissioners lived. The voters of Travis County knew the facts about Ralph Yarborough's wild charges concerning the insurance companies. They gave Shivers a majority over Yarborough even though the big Negro boxes in Austin went solid for Yarborough, and Yarborough had lived in Austin over 20 years. And Allan Shivers carried the precinct in Austin where Ralph Yarborough lives about two to one!

Out here in West Texas, a long ways from the Rio Grande Valley and the State Capitol, it was difficult to tell whether Yarborough was making false charges or not. But these charges have been answered quicker than Yarborough ever dreamed would happen.

These election returns are facts which the supporters of Ralph Yarborough will have difficulty in explaining away.

Cinerama Cost of Installation Is Only $250,000.00

Most of the ads placed by the Melba Theater, Dallas, for "This Is Cinerama," carry this line: The only theater in the Southwest that will or can show Cinerama.

There are a number of reasons for that statement. The enormous cost of producing Cinerama attractions and the difficult technical problems involved in their production make it improbable that more than one will be produced annually. This means that a Cinerama theater will normally have only one change of program per year.

To convert a standard motion picture theater for Cinerama presentation requires an average outlay of $250,000, and once converted the theater cannot present regular motion pictures, which would be completely distorted on the great, curved Cinerama screen. In addition, the projectors required for Cinerama are so unlike those used for standard motion pictures that no interchange would be possible even were the differences in screen dimensions not a barrier.

A third factor is the high cost of operating a Cinerama theater. The average movie house has two projectionists on its payroll; a Cinerama theater requires 11, each of superior competence. The Melba, in Dallas, requires an operating and executive staff of 42, not counting its crew of janitors and cleaners.

These three factors, only one Cinerama production per year, playing in a theater expensively re-constructed to play Cinerama attractions exclusively, and faced with a weekly overhead expense far greater than most theaters can possibly gross, explain why there will never be more than a few Cinerama theaters in the entire country.

The Melba, Dallas, is intended to serve the entire Southwest, not just Dallas or Texas alone. Only by being in the very heart of the Southwest's heaviest population concentration can its costly type of operation be justified.

There are 13 Cinerama installations in the United States and no more are under way at the present time. Foreign installations are to be made in London, Paris, Rome, Tokyo, and Western Germany before the end of the year.

Dan Thornton, Governor of Colorado: "The time has come for Americans to forget politics in dealing with the Communist threat."

Rabies Study on Bats in Texas by Health Department

AUSTIN: A system of banding bats as a means of checking their winter migrations is being planned by laboratory personnel as the State Department of Health continues its studies of rabies in Texas' bat population.

"Banding bats will help us answer the question of whether they go into Mexico's vampire bat haunts during winter migrations," Laboratory Director J. V. Irons said. Vampire bats, native to most parts of Mexico, are notorious carriers of rabies.

Meanwhile, State Health Officer Henry A. Holle revealed a $10,000 National Institute of Health research grant had been made to the state health agency to aid in financing the study, payment contingent on receipt of funds by the Institute.

To date, 700 of Texas' furry little night flying insect eaters have been examined for evidence of infection by virologists at the department's Bureau of Laboratories. Six "positive" strains have been found.

The study was initiated last year after a Florida boy was bitten in an unprovoked attack by a bat subsequently proved rabid. Four similar attacks have since occurred in Texas.

Two attacks occurred in Austin, one in San Antonio and one in Houston. The most recent case involved an 18-year-old Austin girl who was bitten while swimming in a neighborhood swimming pool.

All four attacks were "provoked," investigators said.

Most bats examined in the Texas study have come from four caves in limestone regions of Central Texas: Nye Cave near Bandera, Bracken Cave near San Antonio, Uvalde's Frio Cave, and Devil's Sinkhole in Edwards County.

Confusion Results When Men Change Their Given Names

Albert Charles Smith died and his lawyer filed the petition of probate for his estate, entitling it: "In the Matter of the Estate of Albert Charles Smith, also known as Albert Smith, also known as Charles Smith, also known as A. Charles Smith, also known as A. C. Smith and also known as Charley Smith."

With such a simple name, what did Mr. Smith do to make the probating of his estate so complicated?

When Albert Charles Smith was born, the attending physician filed a birth certificate with that name. During his school years, his friends called him "Al."

Mr. Smith went to college and decided that his name would look more distinguished if he wrote it "A. Charles Smith," and he was so regarded. His college diploma carried that name.

Starting out in business Mr. Smith took a job that required him to write his signature many times a day. To simplify the work, he signed his name "A. C. Smith." His bank account and telephone number were recorded that way. Mr. Smith lost a part of his identity, since there were 11 "A. C. Smiths" listed in his telephone book.

Mr. Smith decided to get married and he rushed to the courthouse to get his license. Without giving the matter much thought, he told the clerk his name was "Charles Smith." The name was recorded on his marriage certificate.

Mr. Smith bought a house, and the lawyer who handled the transaction asked for his full name. The deed was registered at the courthouse under the name "Albert Charles Smith."

A life insurance agent had previously written a policy for Mr. Smith under the name, "Al C. Smith." During his middle life, Mr. Smith took out other policies from another agent, and all of them carried the name "Albert C. Smith." He took a position with a railroad and appeared on the pension roll as "A. C. Smith."

Mr. Smith owned some securities and several pieces of real estate and also owed various bills. They were all listed under varying combinations of his name.

Then Mr. Smith made his will under the name of "Albert C. Smith." A year later he died; and that is when his attorney started working and trying to find out just who Mr. Smith was and what he owed and owned.

Of course this case is imaginary; but it illustrates how difficult and costly such a practice can be.

Every person should use the name appearing on his birth certificate and should make sure that all documents which have a legal bearing, such as school diplomas, deeds to property, certificates of stock and bond ownership, and insurance policies, carry the same name. This will often avoid complications in the probating of an estate.

PGC Feeds Are Tops in Quality

With wide distribution throughout West Texas, Producers Grain Corporation has won an enviable reputation for the high quality of its PGC livestock and poultry feeds. The economy in using PGC feeds, coupled with highly satisfactory results, have made them leaders in their field.

These popular feeds are manufactured from formulas that eminated from both research and actual feeding tests and are not mixed from ingredients that may be selling at a lower price and which would reduce the quality.

PGC feeds can be purchased from Consumers Elevator in Canyon, Happy Wheat Growers, Tulia Wheat Growers, Dimmitt Wheat Growers, Adrian Wheat Growers, Farmers Co-op Elevator at Umbarger, Wildorado Producers Association, Vega Wheat Growers, Kress Farmers Elevator, Plainview Wheat Growers, Hale Center Wheat Growers, Silverton Co-op, Producers Elevator at Floydada, and Co-op Grain Co. at Abernathy.

Besides manufacturing the popular PGC feeds, Producers Grain Corporation has always provided a ready market for all grains grown in this area. Their elevator facilities are the most modern and they pay the highest market prices for grain.

Mr. J. Frank Triplett, vice-president and general manager, W. W. Bridges, manager of the feed mill division, and all the other officers of the company have always been most cooperative in any worthwhile movement that will benefit the agricultural interests of this territory. They have been a boon to our grain growers and merit the patronage and good will of all.

We wish to compliment Producers Grain Corporation and the firms who handle PGC feeds for making this quality products available and their willingness to advise proper feeds to be used to meet specific feeding requirements.

July steel output may exceed expectations.

These practical steel buildings are prefabricated, come in many practical sizes and are easily erected, thus saving money in construction costs. They are fire resistant, rat proof, termite proof and warp proof—and as is known to all "there is no substitute for steel."

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18th CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Water—A No. 1 National Problem

A new Special Sub-committee of the Interior Committee has been appointed to study the nation's water resources.

I was honored to be included as one of the members of this Special Committee. I have long argued that too little attention was being paid to our water problems. In other words, it became the custom in this country to take water for granted, simply because we thought we had plentiful supplies.

There was always quite a bit of talk about creating water reserves, but very little was done about it on a national scale. Great reservoirs were created in the 17 western reclamation states, and it seemed to be the opinion of everyone that that would settle the problem. The people in the Middle West and the eastern section of the United States apparently did not feel that there was any need for them to be disturbed about possible water shortages.

However, the water inventories in recent years have disclosed some very disturbing situations in all the 48 states. This, no doubt, had much to do with the appointment by President Eisenhower of a Cabinet-level group to work with the Hoover Commission and the Committee on Government Operations concerning the problems. However, until the appointment of the new Special Committee by Chairman Miller, of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, of the House of Representatives, there was no legislative committee in position to act legislatively on any recommendations made by the other groups.

This new committee will work in close cooperation and coordination with the other groups in putting into legislative form the recommendations of the other groups and thereby formulating a national water policy, in keeping with President Eisenhower's program. Chairman Miller, in appointing the committee, called our attention to the old saying, which is quite appropriate at this time, to wit, "No one misses the water until the well runs dry."

This reminds me of a story that was told to me when I was a little boy about the Indian who was asked what he considered the greatest benefit that had been developed by the white man's civilization. The Indian chief, without hesitancy, pointed to the water hydrant and said, "Running water."

It would astound some of the city folks to know just what a meager reserve they have in their water supplies. The problem is certainly a number one defense problem, because saboteurs would have little difficulty in creating absolute chaos in many of our large cities by contamination of the water facilities.

Adjournment

As most of you know, we have been adjourning for the last 30 days.

To date, we have not closed shop and probably won't be closed when you receive this letter. However, I hope that the House will be able to go home by the 15th or 20th, at the latest.

If we don't hurry up and get out, there is going to be some questionable legislation on the books. The closing days of the session are always, to me, the most dangerous, insofar as the possibility of unwanted legislation is concerned. This leaves very little time for debate on the measures that are brought forward.

This means that very little opportunity is afforded the Members to study and understand just what the particular bill will do. In fact, sometimes the author of the bill, who is, no doubt, very sincere in what he is trying to do, fails to anticipate something occasioned by his bill that he did not intend.

I would much prefer to shut off the session for a month or two and afford the opportunity of studying these bills before they are passed. Today we have been considering a bill relating to labeling of packages containing foreign-produced trout sold in the United States, and requiring certain information to appear on the menus of public eating places serving such trout. It seems that a fish war has developed between the domestic trout producers and foreign trout.

The battle seems to be taking place in the restaurants. The domestic trout producers complain that foreign trout is imported into this country and listed on menus as Rocky Mountain trout, eastern brook trout, Rocky Mountain rainbow trout, and various other descriptive names. They claim that this practice is unfair to the domestic producer and the consumer, and that the bill should be passed, requiring foreign trout to be labeled as such on the menus in the eating places throughout this country. They also claim that, unless this act is passed, it will mean the bankruptcy of many of the trout farms in this country and the resulting loss of a source of supply for the streams and lakes of this country and trout-fishing will soon be a thing of the past.

It would seem to me that this is a matter that should be handled primarily by the several states. Federal legislation of this type is a continuing trend toward centralized government. The present administration has repeatedly stated that it opposes centralized government and desires that the trend be toward a preservation of the rights, privileges, powers and immunities in the several states.

I find some difficulty in understanding what appears to be good talk and bad politics. Talk is not going to return any rights to the states so long as legislation is daily brought before the Congress that tends to continue to centralize this government.

YOUR SENATOR REPORTS

By LYNDON B. JOHNSON
U. S. Senator

Red China and the UN

The Senate spoke with one voice against the entrance of Red China into the United Nations.

We voted unanimously to write into the foreign aid bill the opposition of Congress to the seating in the United Nations of the Communist China regime as the representative of China.

The amendment we adopted also requests President Eisenhower, in the event of Red Chinese admission to the United Nations, to inform Congress "of the implications of this action upon the foreign policy of the United States . . . together with any recommendations which he may have with respect to the matter."

I know, from the many letters I have received on the subject, that this will meet with the approval of the people of Texas.

"Catch-All" Money Bill

One of the final actions of the Senate Appropriations Committee during this session was to send to the floor of the Senate a $2,015,771,000 supplemental appropriation bill. The bill is a sort of "catch-all" for funds which must be made available before Congress adjourns.

The measure provides extra money requested by President Eisenhower to carry out the programs of scores of agencies in the current fiscal year. It was $162,000,000 less than the total requested.

Military Construction

The supplemental appropriations bill, as reported by the committee, included substantial sums for military construction. Among specific recommendations were the following:

The committee voted $796,000,000 in new funds for Air Force construction at home and abroad. It authorized a total of $907,000,000. The difference between the two figures will come from money carried over from past years.

For naval base construction, the committee approved $114,000,000 in new funds and a total authorization of $209,000,000. For Army construction, the sum of $205,000,000 in new money was approved. Also included was $175,000,000 for 11,000 military housing units.

Important to Texas

So far as Texas is concerned, the supplemental appropriations bill also was important for one item it did NOT contain. I refer to the request of the Federal Power Commission for a supplemental appropriation of $300,000 to handle work expected to arise if the Supreme Court decision in the Phillips Petroleum case stands. This is the natural gas decision of such great concern to Texas.

I expressed to Senator Bridges, Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, my vigorous opposition to the FPC request for the additional $300,000, making three points: (1) Texas has a motion before the Supreme Court for reconsideration of the decision; (2) I have requested the President to establish a commission to consider the matter and report back with legislative recommendations; (3) Action should not be taken until the FPC has consulted the gas industry and determined the steps it will take once the issue has reached a conclusion.

The gas industry is a Texas asset of tremendous value. The Supreme Court decision in the Phillips case has caused consternation throughout the industry. An appropriation at this time to enforce it would merely add to the confusion. Nothing will be lost by postponing a decision on the appropriation until the next session of Congress.

Naturally, I was happy that the Senate committee agreed with me and refused the request of the FPC for the supplemental appropriation.

Public Buildings Program

The Federal Government is about to launch a public buildings program to extend over the next three years. It will be the first since before World War II and will be carried out under the lease-purchase program recently written into law.

The General Services Administration and the Post Office Department are now compiling a list of priority Federal construction for submission to the Budget Bureau and to the House and Senate Public Works Committees. As this is written, the priority list is expected to reach Capitol Hill before the end of the session.

A large number of proposed buildings in Texas are included among the Federal building projects listed as eligible for construction. I am hopeful that a fair share of them will be placed on the priority list.

Texas Army Maneuvers

It has been announced that the 47th Infantry Division and the First Armored Division will hold special maneuvers in Texas this fall. The ultimate aim is to develop an atomic age army.

AUSTIN: State candidates in the runoff races are now on the firing line, blasting away.

In the gubernatorial race, Governor Allan Shivers and Judge Ralph Yarborough have re-formed their lines and are in a showdown battle for the state's top job.

Both candidates for governor had reasons for failing to score a victory in the first primary.

Shivers said that his supporters were too confident and had not turned out at the polls in the expected numbers. He encouraged them to exercise their right to vote in the coming election.

Yarborough said that he would have won the first primary except for Texas Republicans who neglected their own primary to vote against him.

Three Factors Decide

Capable of determining the August election were 400,000 Texans, eligible to vote, who stayed away from the polls July 24.

A smaller factor was the 36,000 who cast their votes for Davis and Holmes.

Also to be considered were the Republicans who voted in their own party primaries in July, but who are free to cast their ballots in the Democratic second primary. Most of these votes, it was generally conceded, would go for Shivers.

Scott in Court Runoff

Austin Attorney Alfred Scott will be in the runoff with Judge Few Brewster, for Place 1 on the Supreme Court.

This race will gain more than a little attention, as will the campaign of Judges Alan Haley and Lloyd Davidson for the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Fires Hit Area

Hardly had the embers of the political fires cooled when forest fires broke out both east and west of Austin.

Thousands of acres of woodlands, and three homes, now lie scorched, burned and bared as the result of fires around Volente (Dodd City) on Lake Travis west of Austin.

On the opposite side of the capitol city, the eastern portion of Bastrop State Park lost 7,000 acres of pine and live oak as the result of an eight-day brush and timber fire . . . squelched finally by sudden showers.

Drouth Aid Arrives

Just as the hot sun has made easily flamable the forests in the area, so has the temperature and lack of rain taken its toll of the ranchlands.

Governor Shivers and Agricultural Commissioner John White have combined their efforts to obtain drouth relief in the form of a federal and state-backed hay program.

Ranchers in 23 Central and West Texas counties will be eligible.

Allocations for the aid, amounting to $600,000, were provided largely by the federal government with a $500,000 helping hand. The state will counter with the balance.

Titled "Operation Haylift," the program is the third since 1952 for state ranchers who now are weathering the worst drouth in their history. The program will be almost identical to the other two and will allow ranchers to benefit from reduced transportation charges on hay.

Nine other state counties also are being considered for recommendation to the U. S. Agriculture Department.

Counties now receiving aid are Bastrop, Bell, Bexar, Bosque, Blanco, Brown, Burnet, Comal, Comanche, Coryell, Erath, Hamilton, Hays, Kendall, Lampasas, Lee, Llano, McCulloch, Mason, Mills, San Saba, Travis, and Williamson.

Governor Shivers, commenting on the program, said he felt it would ease the present situation, but that, "This drouth could get so bad we might have to call a special session to provide funds."

Judge Re-rules

Operation of the Commercial Security Insurance Company of Houston, already once halted and continued, has been stopped again by District Judge J. Harris Gardner.

Gardner, who issued a previous order restraining the firm from business and a later one allowing it to continue, issued the latest ruling on grounds that the company had gone into business on borrowed capital, thus violating state law.

State action charging fraudulent organization against the $250,000 fire and casualty firm was initiated July 15 by Attorney General John Ben Shepperd. He said he had asked for the temporary restraining order at the request of the State Board of Insurance Commissioners.

The order was modified a few days later to allow continuance of the firm's business.

J. D. Wheeler, liquidator for the insurance board, has been named by the court as receiver to supervise all affairs of the company. Ben B. High, company president, said shareholders would receive no loss if the receivership is handled properly.

Business Perks Up

Good news to Texas businessmen that the state's recession-plagued business situation will soon perk up has been issued by the University of Texas Business Research Bureau.

An upswing in business should be noted after a few weeks of stabilization as the present recession has hit its bottom, the bureau reported.

A survey of 2,865 retailers over the state showed June sales equaling those for May but four per cent down from last June. For the first half of 1954, sales were seven per cent below 1953 showings.

PARKING NICKEL TRAPS MAN

Denver, Colo. — Because a paroled convict failed to put a nickel in a parking meter, he was apprehended by police and charged with a $9,658 bank robbery. Otto A. Atterson, 23, stopped for a beer and overlooked putting a nickel in the meter. An alert motorcycle patrolman heard a broadcast description of the bandit's getaway car and recalled ticketing it for overtime parking.

HEAT BEATS BEACON

Kansas City. — An electric beacon atop an office building here, which indicates the weather forecasts by flashing colored lights, went beserk the other night, after many days of 110 degree temperatures, and began flashing in quick succession the signs for fair weather, cloudy skies, rain and snow. Martin Kauffman, the man who sets the control dials, observed, "the thing must be suffering from heat stroke."

DISASTER RELIEF

The Federal Government has provided $66,683,033 for flood, drouth and other disaster relief to the states since Congress authorized the disaster relief program in 1951. A little more than half of this amount—$35,694,704—was allocated to the Housing and Home Finance Agency for disaster relief prior to 1953, and $30,988,329 to the Civil Defense administration for distribution, under the present system of coping with disasters.

❶ "I first used Conoco Super with TCP on a vacation trip. Right from the start I could feel the difference in my 1946 Chevy's performance. In hilly country I just sailed right over. Better mileage, too!"
Carl E. Rudsell, Farmer
Route #1, Utica, Nebraska

❷ "Conoco Super with TCP gives my car the best all-around performance—quick starting, smoother running and almost 3 miles more per gallon. I'm really sold. They don't make a better gasoline."
Audrey Lewis, Car Salesman
1216 McArthur, Rosenberg, Texas

❸ "I discovered Conoco Super with TCP on a trip to my daughter's in Salina, Kansas—165 miles each way. I made the round trip without refilling the tank—the first time I'd ever been able to do that!"
Lon Hall, Barber
909 Tennessee St., Lawrence, Kansas

❹ "My mail route runs near 90 miles. What with hills, bumpy roads and traffic, I need the best gasoline I can get. I got it with Conoco Super with TCP! It's far ahead of any I've ever bought."
A. S. Johnson, Rural Mail Carrier
1926 West Sycamore, Denton, Texas

❺ "I switched to Conoco Super with TCP hoping I could stop engine knock in my new car. Now there's no knock or ping and the ride is much smoother. It really runs like a new car."
Wilhelmina O. Bruhn, Housewife
2233 Kearney Street, Denver, Colorado

Kathrine Lyons of Pampa writes the following very lovely letter.

"I have been reading your articles in the paper every week and I enjoy them immensely.

"So, you can say that this is a 'fan letter.'

"But, seriously, I have wanted to write and tell you how much I like your literary efforts.

"We still think Canyon is the most wonderful place in the world, even though we like it here and are enjoying living here very much.

"Sincerely, Kathrine Lyons."

Thanks, Kathrine. We are glad you like Pampa, but we do miss you in Canyon. Kathrine's husband is Gordon Lyons, who for nine years was manager of the Southwestern Public Service Co. in Canyon. Because of his efficient service he was promoted to Amarillo and then received this promotion to Pampa.

While living in Canyon the Lyons took an active part in every movement for the betterment of Canyon, and we feel sure they have entered with the same wholeheartedness into the life of Pampa.

Mrs. George Nance gave me a new salad recipe the other day. It is easy to make and delicious. Wash and stem Thompson seedless grapes, then take Philadelphia Cream Cheese and mix with cream until it is the consistency of whipped cream, add this to the grapes stirring until each grape is coated. Place in refrigerator to chill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Montgomery have been fishing at Creed, Colo. I am told they caught their quota of fish and then went to Red River where they did some more fishing. Both couples left their small children with their grandmothers.

A lace cloth believed to be the largest ever made by machine was expressly designed for the state dining room of the White House.

Quaker Lace Company, Philadelphia, Pa., was commissioned to create the cloth for state banquets, high teas and special social functions in the executive mansion.

It is four times as long as the standard table cover and about a foot wider, measuring about seven feet wide by 28½ feet long.

A week of concentrated effort went into the cloth's making, and the cotton used in the lace could form a string 52 miles long.

Mrs. Alfred Bellah has returned from her trip to the West Coast and Canada. Mrs. Bellah traveled in a car with her aunt and two friends. They visited at Yellowstone Park, Lake Louise, Glacier Park, taking trips in the states of Washington, Oregon, and returning by way of Salt Lake City. Mrs. Bellah said they saw much beautiful country, that she enjoyed the mountains and the ocean but that she was glad she lived on the Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sigman, who live at 2714 6th Ave., have some beautiful Zinnias. I measured some of them and they are six inches across and the colors are beautiful. Mrs. Sigman says they raised them from the Ma Perkins Giant Zinnia seeds given out two years ago.

Princess Margaret of England has her first auto for her very own. It is a black Rolls Royce with a lot of "extras," most of which operate electrically. The price—$22,400. I wonder how many English families that would keep for a year.

The other day I was looking for a piece of beef for dinner and I asked one of the local butchers if he didn't have the particular cut I wanted without any bones in it. He said, "No. That all the cattle they bought for their market still had bones, BUT, that he understood that just before Luther Burbank died he developed a beef animal without any bones and that, as soon as that animal was put on the market they would handle it for their customers. But, he said, the local cowmen had been afraid of this boneless animal for fear it wouldn't stand up to the Panhandle winds." Now that's just what he told me, as sober as a judge, but, I thought I saw a twinkle in his eye.

John Philopoulos, 60, who arrived in Boston from Greece in 1909 as a penniless immigrant and built a fortune by starting with a banana pushcart was asked the secret of his success.

"You can make money," Philopoulos explained, "if you have a better product than the next chap. I always bought the best bananas, sold them cheaper than the others, and sold more of them. It's funny, but if you don't try to make money too fast, you make it faster."

The Dallas News has been running a series of articles concerning so-called "comic books." On investigation, they found that many of these books are "shabby, sensational, lewd, crime-teaching and cleverly subtle." And in the opinion of The News they are not good reading for impressionable teenagers.

Some comic books and some comic strips are acceptable. Too many are not.

The response in Dallas was heartening in five days these objectionable books suddenly disappeared from the drug and grocery stores. And these outlets voluntarily called to promise cooperation.

The Dallas News will make demands for cleaner comics. And it hopes, and believes, that other American newspapers will join in the same demand.

The Canyon News knows that if any merchant in Canyon is inadvertedly handling these objectionable comic books they will immediately cooperate with the movement.

In the opinion of The News these objectionable comic books are not good reading for impressionable teen-agers. And they may be the reason for the tragic growth of teen-age temptations that lead to the present wave of juvenile delinquency.

It is well to realize the tremendous help that we receive in our gardens and fields from the lowly earthworm. They are rightfully called nature's "plowmen" working day and night bringing up soil from below and dragging down rich humus to fertilize the subsoil. Fifty thousand of these little diggers may inhabit a single acre, and in one year's time can change FIFTEEN TONS of poor sod into rich loomy topsoil.

Charles Darwin was the first to recognize the important role played by earthworms in the subsoil. By being continually loosened, stirred up, and aerated by the action of earthworms, soil is made more fertile.

Earthworms are capable of burrowing with considerable speed, especially in loose soil, by thrusting their bluntly pointed heads between particles of earth and forcing them apart, or by actually swallowing much of the opposing material and excreting it after passage through their bodies.

So valuable have these worms been proven that fortunes have been made by persons who raise them for sale.

"For the word of the Lord is right; and all his works are done in truth. He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the Lord." Psalm 33:4-5.

LIPSTICK
LOGIC
BY LOUISE ALLEN

American women living in Germany are pretty upset with the Army, we read in the papers. Seems they feel hurt, being citizens of the United States, they should be free to wear what they want to, when they want to, and customs be hanged.

Well we'd go along with the girls about wearing their midriffs, jeans or shorts to the grocery store — if they were at home in the United States. And that in spite of the fact that we sometimes think they are guilty of bad taste. American women, with all their freedom, sometimes get confused as to their own proper type. And — let's face it — it's one thing for a woman under 30, with the proper measurements, to appear in public in shorts, midriff, or jeans. But it's downright poor judgment to call attention to her charms if she doesn't have them. At home in the United States, that's all there is to it.

But — when she's living in a foreign country, she's representing American women everywhere. And some of us just naturally don't like being thought of as middle-aged midriff gals. Or paunchy Mesdames America. Or 200 - pound pixies.

Actually, we suspect the general who issued the unpopular decree had more serious reasons than appearances for his ruling. Either it was made for the protection of the women themselves, or as a concession to the customs of the country in which they're living. And if the American women who were lucky enough to get to go with their husbands on foreign assignment haven't the courtesy to respect the traditions of another land, maybe they need a little coaching from the military authorities on the finer points of fashion!
